R
370.5
E253
v.19

INDEX

Volume XIX: October, 1939–May, 1940

Ackerman, Page and Bohannon, Alice, Druid Hills Freshmen Buy Books for the Library, 193
Adjustment Service—Chicago Schools, Grace Munson, 327
Administration and Supervision, 1939, Harry H. Giles, 3
Aesthetics in Personality Growth, Robert J. Sailstad, 452
Axtelle, George E., Significance of the Inquiry into the Nature and Constancy of the I. Q., 99

Bader, Edith M., November Issue, Continued, 229
Benjamin, Harold, November Issue, Continued, 231
Bohannon, Alice, see Ackerman, Page
Bolton, Helen, Editorial, 361
Books by Commissions, Committees and National Societies, Foreword, 424
Bowes, Fern H., I Went to College, 21
Burton, William H., Supervision in the New School, 210; Review: The Implications of Research for the Classroom Teacher, 428

Caswell, Hollis L., In-service Education Looking Forward, 262
Cohler, Milton J., Some Educational Implications of the "Changing I. Q.", 113
Community Resources in Rural Schools, Review, Samuel Everett, 432
Conference on Supervision and Community Culture, 411
Contributions and Requests, Anonymous, 43
Creative Supervision, Curriculum Materials Suited to, Henry Harap, 378
Cunningham, Ruth, Report of the St. Louis Meeting, 376

DeBoer, John J., Intelligence and Democratic Living, 93
DeBoer, John J. and Witty, Paul, Intelligence in a Changing Universe—Postscripts, 440
Democracy in the Formulation of School Policies, Margaret Willis, 216
Do the High Schools Carry On? Genevieve L. Stone, 462
Douglas, Mary Peacock, Patterns in Elementary School Library Service, 177
Drake, Alice, A Rural Community Continues Its Education, 282
Drenckhahn, Vivian and Otto, Henry J., Helping Each Other Professionally, 276
Dunsmoor, Clarence C., Shall We Modernize Our Homework Requirements? 458

Editorials:
Lou L. LaBrant, 47
Lou L. LaBrant, Paul Witty, 118
Helen Bolton, 361
Elementary School and the Community, The, Genevieve L. Stone, 401
Embree, Royal B., Jr., The Guidance Function in Schools and Colleges, 336
Enlarged Horizons: Trends in School Library Administration, Willard A. Heaps, 147
Eurich, Alvin, C., November Issue, Continued, 232
Everett, Samuel, Review: Community Resources in Rural Schools, 432

Faculty Went to Summer School, A, Anonymous, 22
Feagley, Ethel, The Reader's Guide, 203
Forty Rural Teachers Went to School, Helen Heffernan and Forty Teachers, 16
Fourth R, The, Irwin A. Johnson, 271.

Giles, Harry H., Administration and Supervision, 1939, 3
Goodenough, Florence L., Look to the Evidence! A Critique of Recent Experiments on Raising the I. Q., 73
Graphic and Industrial Arts Essential in the Preparation of the General Elementary Teacher, Helen Heffernan and Gretchen Wulfing, 236
Green, Roberta L., The Public Library Aids in the School's Free Reading Program, 190
Guidance Function in Schools and Colleges, The, Royal B. Embree, Jr., 336
Guidance, The Next Step in, Gertha Williams, 310
Guidance in Education, The Idea of, Frederick Wyatt, 354
Guidance in the Classroom, Catherine Williams, 343

Hahn, Julia L., November Issue, Continued, 231; To the Members, 48, 120, 199, 246, 298, 362, 408
Hanna, Paul R., November Issue, Continued, 230
Harap, Henry, Curriculum Materials Suited to Creative Supervision, 378
Heaps, Willard A., Enlarged Horizons: Trends in School Library Administration, 147
Heffernan, Helen, Forty Rural Teachers Went to School, 16; What School Library Service Means to Rural Education, 154; The Twelfth Yearbook: Newer Instructional Practices of Promise, 394
Heffernan, Helen and Wulfing, Gretchen, Graphic and Industrial Arts Essential in the Preparation of the General Elementary Teacher, 236; Music Training Essential for the General Elementary Teacher, 288
Helping Each Other Professionally, Henry J. Otto and Vivian Drenckhahn, 276
High School Students Talk It Over, Anonymous, 242
Hockett, John A., Kinds of Experiences Which Should Be Fostered Through Supervision, 388
Hofer, Catherine, Summer School Experiences, 34
Hopes and Fears of Two Teachers, The First, Marvin Rife, The Second, Anonymous, 13
Horwich, Frances R., What Summer School Did for Me, 10

I Went to College, Fern H. Bowes, 21
I Went to Summer School, Anonymous, 28
Implications of Research for the Classroom Teacher, The, Review, William H. Burton, 428
In-service Education Looking Forward, Hollis L. Caswell, 262
Intelligence and Democratic Living, John J. DeBoer, 93
Intelligence in a Changing Universe—Postscripts, John J. DeBoer and Paul Witty, 440
Intelligence, Its Nature and Nurture, Review, John G. Rockwell, 436
Intelligence of Negro Children, The, Martin D. Jenkins, 106

34198

Intelligence Testing: Its Basic Assumptions and Unanswered Questions, John G. Rockwell, 80
It Did Happen, Irma A. Jewell, 46

Jewell, Irma A., It Did Happen, 46
Jenkins, Martin D., The Intelligence of Negro Children, 106
Johnson, Irwin A., The Fourth R, 271

Keliher, Alice V., November issue, Continued, 234
Kendig, M., November Issue, Continued, 232
Kennon, Sudie, Student Forums and the Library, 188

LaBrant, Lou L., Editorials, 47, 118
Lambright, E. Pauline, My Need for Supervision, 25
Librarian in the School's Guidance Program, The Function of the, Winifred B. Linderman, 349
Library and Art Department Combine Efforts, Irene K. Rope, 197
Library, Druid Hills Freshmen Buy Books for the, Page Ackerman and Alice Bohannon, 193
Linderman, Winifred B., The Function of the Librarian in the School's Guidance Program, 349
Look to the Evidence! A Critique of Recent Experiments on Raising the I. Q., Florence L. Goodenough, 73

Martin, Elizabeth Du Vernet, Providing Teaching Materials for Classrooms, 184
Millard, C. V., Further Comments on the November Issue, 445
Mossman, Lois Coffey, The Reader's Guide, 56, 124, 251, 301, 366, 413, 448, 470
Munson, Amelia H., Some Folks Won't Read, 142
Munson, Grace, Adjustment Service—Chicago Schools, 327
Music Training Essential for the General Elementary Teacher, Helen Heffernan and Gretchen Wulfing, 288

Nature and Constancy of the I. Q., Significance of the Inquiry Into the, George E. Axtelle, 99
News from the Field, 50, 121, 201, 249, 299, 364, 409, 468
November Issue, Continued, 229
November Issue, Further Comments on the, C. V. Millard, 445

Otto, Henry J., see Drenckhahn, Vivian, 276

Parker, Beryl, and Thyng, Franc J., Tastes Differ, 162
Patterns in Elementary School Library Service, Mary Peacock Douglas, 177
Philosophy Not Enough, Genevieve L. Stone, 292

Reader's Guide, The, Ethel Feagley, 203
Reader's Guide, The, Lois Coffey Mossman, 56, 124, 251, 301, 366, 413, 448, 470
"Readin'—Always Readin'!" Louise M. Rosenblatt, 134
Reorienting Remedial Reading in a Natural Setting—the Library, Nila Banton Smith, 156
Richardson, J. S., Introduction to a Workshop, 7
Rife, Marvin, Hopes and Fears of Two Teachers, (The First), 13
Roberts, Holland, Review: Teachers for Democracy, 426; November Issue, Continued, 231
Rockwell, John G., Intelligence Testing: Its Basic Assumptions and Unanswered Questions, 80; Review: Intelligence, Its Nature and Nurture, 436
Rope, Irene K., Library and Art Department Combine Efforts, 197
Rosenblatt, Louise M., "Readin'—Always Readin'!" 134
Rural Community Continues Its Education, A, Alice Drake, 282

Sailstad, Robert J., Aesthetics in Personality Growth, 452
San Francisco Meeting, 53
Sanderson, Virginia, "Since We Have Voices. . . .", 268
School's Free Reading Program, The Public Library Aids in the, Roberta L. Green, 190
Seven Requests, Anonymous, 31
Shall We Modernize Our Homework Requirements? Clarence C. Dunsmoor, 458
"Since We Have Voices. . . .", Virginia Sanderson, 268
Smith, Nila Banton, Reorienting Remedial Reading in a Natural Setting—the Library, 156
Some Educational Implications of the "Changing I. Q.", Milton J. Cohler, 113
Some Folks Won't Read, Amelia H. Munson, 142
St. Louis Meeting, Report of, Ruth Cunningham, 376
St. Louis Program, 247
Stone, Genevieve L., Philosophy Not Enough, 292; The Elementary School and the Community, 401; Do the High Schools Carry On? 462
Strang, Ruth, Why Guidance Programs Fail—and Succeed, 321
Student Forums and the Library, Sudie Kennon, 188
Summer Conferences on Supervision, 469
Summer Experiences, I Evaluate, Anonymous, 39
Summer School Experiences, Catherine Hofer, 34
Supervision in the New School, William H. Burton, 210
Supervision, Kinds of Experiences Which Should Be Sponsored Through John A. Hockett, 388
Supervision, My Need for, E. Pauline Lambright, 25
Supervision: The Lighthouse of Education, Anonymous, 19
Supervision, The Role of the Teacher in, Dale Zeller, 383

Tastes Differ, Beryl Parker and Franc J. Thyng, 162
Teachers for Democracy, Review, Holland Roberts, 426
Teaching Materials for Classrooms, Providing, Elizabeth Du Vernet Martin, 184
Thyng, Franc J., see Parker, Beryl, 162
To the Members, 48, 120, 199, 246, 298, 362, 408
Toward a Reconstruction of the Concept of Intelligence, Paul Witty, 64
Twelfth Yearbook: Newer Instructional Practices of Promise, The, Helen Heffernan, 394

We Went to Summer School, Foreword, 2
What School Library Service Means to Rural Education, Helen Heffernan, 154
What Summer School Did for Me, Frances R. Horwich, 10
Why Guidance Programs Fail—and Succeed, Ruth Strang, 321
Williams, Catherine, Guidance in the Classroom, 343
Williams, Gertha, The Next Step in Guidance, 310
Willis, Margaret, Democracy in the Formulation of School Policies, 216
Witty, Paul, Toward a Reconstruction of the Concept of Intelligence, 64; Editorial, 118
Witty, Paul, see DeBoer, John J., 440
Workshop, Introduction to a, J. S. Richardson, 7
Workshop Participant Now Back on Her Job, A, Anonymous, 220
Wulfing, Gretchen, see Heffernan, Helen, 236, 288
Wyatt, Frederick, The Idea of Guidance in Education, 354

Zeller, Dale, The Role of the Teacher in Supervision, 383